Dear Sibwings in Christ,

My Mama has been super busy deez dayz. She haz been at the Pwaizy Pwace a LOT. Sumpin about a fing called Hody Weeks. All I knows is dat she has not been at home for me to sleeps on her lap. Dis is very wrong-wrong, and I tell her dat all da times. But she duzn't listen to me! So I tought I would be a good helper and write dis newsletter article for hers. Maybe den I can have sum laps!

Mama talks to me about dis Jesus guy a LOT. I dunt understand it all, but I do know dat he is weally importants to my Mama. She says he died for me, too. Who would do sumpin like dat? Mama sez dat is what makes Jesus so special. He died for every-cat, and Jesus makes it possible for all of us, cats, barkies, flap-food, fin-food, and even hoopeoples, to cross the Rainbow Bridge someday and live with Jesus furever and evers.

I guess dis week is so busy becuz it is da time da hoopeople remember dis Jesus and what he did fur us. Da hoopeople at dat time hurted him real bad. It makes Mama sad to talk about it. She sez some of da hoopoeple didn't like Jesus. Maybe he didn't give dem good scritchies or gravy in dere bowls. I likes bof of doz tings a lot. If Jesus came to see me, I would show him what I likes. Maybe I would shares wif him and teach him da Way of the Cat. I would tell him da best food is in da can on the counter. I hopes he can reach it cuz I can't. And scritchies right behind da ears is lubberly! On da chest is good, too, but dontcha eber touch my tail! Or my belly! I dunt like dat.

Mama sez Jesus had a dinner wif his fwiends befur he died. I like dinner a LOT! I wonder if dey had tweets, too. But den he got dem all wet-wet. I dunt like dat part at all! But Mama says unless Jesus gets us wet-wet, we can't go snuggle wif him someday. I likes da snuggles, so maybe just a little wet-wet would be OK. Mama sez she reminds da hoopeople at the Pwaisy Pwace about dis meal ebbery week. Is dis like tweets? I might like dat, too.

But dere is more to da story. Some hoopeople came who didn't like Jesus very much. Dey hurted him and laughed at him and made fun of him. I don't like dat. Den dey really hurted him by giving him great big pokies in his paws and stuck him on a cross. After a little while, he crossed the hoopeople Rainbow Bridge. Dat made all of his fwiends very sad. I bet dere eyes were wet-wet.

I tought dat was da end of the stowy, but Mama sez dere is more. Dis Jesus did not stay dead but came back to life again. His fwiends did not want to believe it because no one had ever done dis before. But once dey knowed it was Jesus, dey were all vevy happy. I would be happy, too, becuz den I could sit on his lap and purr and we could nap togedders! Dat sounds like a purrfect day to me!

And now all the hoopeoples celebrate because Jesus is alive. Even Mama is happy, even doe Jesus lived furever ago. She sez it matters to us, too, and we need to tell everycat all about him. I'm glad Mama is happy about dis, and I am glad Jesus is happy dat we believe in him.

Fank you for reading my letters. My hoo-speak is not gud, but I tries. I likes helping my Mama.

Wif purrs and meows to you all,

Queen Lucy Osborn

YOUTH NEWS

May baskets were popular through the 19th and 20th centuries but date back to ancient Rome. They evoked good tidings and sweet little gifts for loved ones and neighbors, as well as for those weary of winter and thankful for Spring. The custom was to hang a basket on the door and yell "May basket" and then run. If the recipient caught the May Basket giver, he or she was entitled to a kiss.

Our youth are going to help you bring the tradition of May Baskets back to St. Andrews by selling May Baskets on April 30. Please sign up to purchase your baskets on Sunday April 16 or 23. The youth will have your baskets ready to be purchased and go with you on Sunday, April 30, before or after church. By ordering the baskets before May 30, this will help the youth to know how many baskets to make. The basket cost will be $5.00 each.

Note: The pictures below are examples of the May Baskets for sale. There will be a variety of designs, colors, cookies, and candy in the baskets.

In April, St. Andrew's youth will be helping with the Easter Egg Hunt and making and selling May Baskets. Their next get-together will be on May 7, 6pm, for a bowling event.

The Senior High Youth will help preschool and school-age children make greeting cards on Sunday, April 18, during Sunday School.

THANK YOU to St. Andrew's Men's Bible Study Group for donating to the Youth Group the free-will offering from the March 22 Lenten Meal. The money will go toward expenses at the National Youth Gathering in New Orleans in 2024. Thank you for this generous and appreciated gift!
