DECEMBER

The StAND 2023

St. Andrew's Lutheran Church

Beloved in Christ,

This month's theme with Nebraska Synod is "Go and...Be Honest." In our culture of "Nebraska Nice," this can be challenging for us to do, at least all the time. On the other hand, a wise man once told me that if we are "always honest, then we don't have to worry about keeping our story straight." I heard that advice over 25 years ago, and it still resonates with me.

Being honest, though, sometimes comes with a cost. Being brutally honest sometimes is not much more than that: brutal. We can hurt others with our brutal honesty, and that doesn't do anyone any good at all. Loving honesty, however, or what we might call "constructive criticism," is a little bit different. St. Paul reminds us in Ephesians 4:15-16 that we are to speak the truth in love: "But speaking the truth in love, we must grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and knitted together by every ligament with which it is equipped, as each part is working properly, promotes the body's growth in building itself up in love." (NRSV) In the heat of the moment, this can be quite difficult to remember. But we must also remember that if loving each other was easy, everyone would do it. And not everyone can. And Jesus promised that the world would know we are his followers by our love (and frankly, the world will also know us by our lack of love, too).

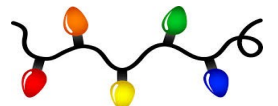

This month, as we watch and wait together in this Season of Advent, we look to the One who is Love Incarnate. Jesus is the One who reveals God's truest nature to us: love. We can't get any more honest than that.

Walking with you along The Way,

Pastor Kim

Pastor Kim will be on vacation beginning December 26 returning to the office on January 4. If there is an emergency and you desire pastoral care while she is away, please contact Council President Gene Veburg at (402) 580-1018 to be connected to the pastor on call.

St. Andrew's will be closed on December 25 and December 26.
Merry Christmas to everyone from Pastor Kim and Marianne!

From Bishop Scott Johnson

A theologian of glory calls evil good and good evil. A theologian of the cross calls things what they actually are.

—Martin Luther, Heidelberg Disputation (1521)—

Beloved in Christ,

[October and November have] been a time of heartbreak and frustration for many of us, as we have seen violence and suffering continue in some places around the world and erupt again in others. I have been in conversation with many of you across the synod regarding the conflict in Israel/Palestine and the varying statements about that conflict from myself, Presiding Bishop Elizabeth Eaton, and others. After many of these conversations, I have found myself reflecting on the myriad possibilities for interpretation that each of us brings to the table. One single sentence which may appear to have a simple, straightforward meaning can be received and understood far differently than its originator may have intended. Social media has been the latest in a long line of environments where fostering outrage is the coin of the realm, and these days, business is good. When this is the case, there may develop a fear of speaking out entirely, or a tendency to say so little that even when one does speak, nothing is actually said. This makes November 2023 a curious month to live out the charge to "Go and...be honest," but perhaps it is a crucial month to do so as well.

Assuming the mantle of honesty is a double-edged sword. Criticism is easy; constructive criticism is difficult. Distinguishing between the two as a listener can be excruciating. I'm certain many of you have experienced the trauma which can result from someone who believes they are a theologian of the cross and simply calling a thing what it actually is. Some of you, like myself, have also experienced the horror of realizing that your truth-telling has actually made a situation worse. Even when we are at our best, living out our calling to bear true witness, being truth-tellers and truth-hearers is hard work, requiring an intense vulnerability as we genuinely listen and speak to one another without defensiveness or unjustified interpretation. This sort of honesty reminds me of the lyrics of a Rich Mullins song:

*And it's hard when your soul has been stripped bare
Hard to lift your eyes toward Heaven...Lord it's hard, oh, it's hard,
You know it's hard to be like Jesus.*

It is incredibly hard to be the kind of honest God is calling us to be, but it's also incredibly important. In a time when many have what the apostle Paul described as "itching ears...accumulating for themselves teachers to suit their own desires," how can we practice speaking the truth in love, and listening for that truth in the same love? How can we offer a gracious environment in which honesty is treasured, vulnerability is protected, and all are truly welcomed? A theologian of the cross might call that sort of environment heavenly, for that's what it is.

Yours in Christ,
Bishop Scott Alan Johnson

GO AND...

BE HONEST

Honesty requires vulnerability, awareness, and a willingness to really listen. Assumptions and half-truths can lead us to misunderstand the situation and story. What does reconciliation mean as we strive to move from places of misunderstanding? God calls us to be honest. Sometimes, that may look like lament and confession, and other times hymns of praise and gratitude.

Questions to Consider:

- What is a time you didn't tell the whole truth... or were not honest?
- What piece of history should you/could you explore with a lens of honesty?
- In what way are you being dishonest in your life?
- GO and express gratitude by saying thank you to someone who deserves it.

Prayer: Reconciling God, we ask for forgiveness for the times we have not reconciled our differences and acknowledged the hurts and wounds we have caused. Amen.

Suggested Songs: Amazing Grace (ELW 779) & Be Present at Our Table Lord

CELEBRATING ADVENT 2023

We are doing a special Advent Series this year entitled "Out of Time." Because Advent 4 and Christmas Eve fall on the same Sunday, Pastor Kim thought it would be fun to extend Advent by a few Sundays, as was the practice in the Early Church (480-560 CE).

Here is the schedule of themes for Advent:

November 12: Uncertain Time

November 19: Time Is Relative

November 26: In Our Time/Christ the King

December 3: Running Out of Time

December 10: Time Flies

December 17: Dreamlike Time

December 24 (9am): Out of Time

Merry Christmas from Your 2023 Church Council!

Gene Veburg, Charlotte Burke, Laura Hahn, Curt Weller, Doug Wagemen, Julie Cummings, Ron Lehms, Ryan Bates, Jim Yankech, Jonathan Gordon, Annette Henry and Pastor Kim.

ACTIVITIES AND MEMBER NEWS AT ST. ANDREW'S

MINISTRY OF THE MONTH FOR DECEMBER:

This year our December M.O.M. will continue with our traditional Giving Tree. We will be purchasing gifts for clients of Region V Services day program which is for adults 21 years old and over with developmental disabilities. Through this program participants are given an opportunity to connect with others, participate in fun activities, and attend local events.

Ornaments on our tree will be for a variety of gifts. A couple of the gifts are larger gifts that would be for the program itself, not for one individual. Maybe a group of our members would want to go together to purchase the large items.

Please bring your unwrapped gift to the church and place it under the tree with your ornament.

If you have questions, please contact Tina Moore-Clinton at 402-464-0978 or tina2439@gmail.com.

WOMEN OF THE ELCA

WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY GROUPS will have a combined Circle meeting with a Christmas brunch on December 14 at 9:30am in the Fellowship Hall. All Women are welcome!

SAVE THE DATE for the Winter Retreat on January 13, 2024 in Grand Island.

Quilters meet every Tuesday from about 9am to 12 noon. Do join the quilters on Tuesday mornings to put quilts together. No sewing ability is required.

Dominoes anyone? Come to church on November 20 at 1:00 p.m. for fun and fellowship! The ability to match numbered tiles is helpful. You don't need to bring dominoes as other members share theirs.

OUR CHRISTIAN SYMPATHY SURROUNDS:

— Pastor Kim and Ken on the death of Pastor's father on November 27.

May God enfold this family with love and light, and give them hope and comfort through the promise of eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

A heart-felt thank you for your support of the "Harvest of Books". You have helped to start a child successfully down the road to a lifetime of reading and many precious memories.

LUTHERAN FOOD PANTRY THRIVENT CHALLENGE

As you know, Thrivent challenged St. Andrew's to make a difference by collecting 500 non-perishable food items for the Lutheran Food Pantry between November 1-30. If we reached the goal, Thrivent agreed to supplement with a Generosity Multiplier Gift of $500, courtesy of Thrivent Member Network-Nebraska Region. We've met and exceeded our goal! As of November 30, St. Andrew's has collected 770 non-perishable food items. Thanks to all who contributed and helped meet the challenge and to Norene Steele and Connie Hawkins for counting/moving all the items.

The Annual Meeting (Budget & Elections) will be Sunday, December 3, at 10:15am. Please join us for this important meeting.

The Annual Meeting (Reports) will be held January 28, 2024 at 10:15am.

PLEASE NOTE: ALL COMMITTEE REPORTS ARE DUE BY TUESDAY, DECEMBER 12.

FIRST ANNUAL CHRISTMAS TABLE ON SUNDAY, DECEMBER 17!

Please join us for this first of what is sure to be a new annual tradition at St. Andrew's! After the music celebration in worship on the 17th, we will gather in the Atrium for some Christmas goodies. That's where YOU come in! Please bring your favorite holiday cookies, snacks, candy, or finger-foods to share, along with a copy of the recipe (a great photo op!). We'd love to hear the story of why this food is special to your family, so if you're willing, we'll pass around the microphone and you'll be invited to share the story behind that food. And, in proper St. Andrew's tradition, warm wassail will be served, too! Don't miss out on all the fun!

In the event LPS cancels school for the day because of snow or ice or because the roads are slick and dangerous, St. Andrew's will also be closed and all activities for the day will be cancelled.

In the event school is delayed or the children are sent home early because of inclement weather, St. Andrew's will also have a similar late start or early closing.

However, in the event LPS cancels for the day because of cold and/or wind chill, St. Andrew's will be open and all scheduled activities will commence as planned.

Of course, if you are uncomfortable leaving home and/or driving in any of the above weather conditions, we encourage you to use your best judgment and stay home if you'd rather not be out and about.

If you ever question whether or not the church is open, please call the office, or call or text Pastor Kim to find our for sure.

PASTOR'S COUNCIL REPORT, NOVEMBER 2023

1. On Oct 20, I was invited to lead Vespers (Evening Prayers) at Lincoln Senior Apartments. I did not feel well when I came home and immediately tested positive for COVID. I was in quarantine for 5 days (including Sunday, Oct 22, where we had a Hymn Sing because a supply pastor would not be found on such short notice). Ken tested positive 2 days later.
2. Because of COVID, I was unable to attend the Fall Theological Conference in Kearney. Hotel reservations and conference registration are non-refundable.
3. Congratulations to Jeff Harris, winner of the 2023 Golden Spatula at the BBQ Cook Off.
4. We had a Harvest Host guest on October 30.
5. I met several times with the Nominating Committee. The election slate is now full.
6. I officiated at a non-member wedding on Nov 4.
7. Tri-Church Youth Group met on Nov 5 and did a brief tour of Wyuka Cemetery. We then met with Tom Roper and heard about the ministry of End of Life Care. The evening ended with chili and cinnamon rolls at American Lutheran. Next meeting will be December 3 for a bonfire.
8. I was too tired to attend the Freed for Life event on Nov 5.
9. I attended the Budget Meeting on Nov 7 with the Finance Committee.
10. The Kouzina Food Truck (The Parthenon) was a huge success. I heard from several of our members that it was by far their favorite food truck of the season.
11. The Vitality Committee met on Nov 12 and plans on scheduling Food Trucks again in 2024, beginning in May and ending in October. Because of the time change, we all felt November was too late in the season. The next big food event will be The Christmas Table on Sunday, December 17 right after worship. Congregation members are encouraged to bring a holiday dessert or appetizer to share, 1 copy of the recipe for members to photo (if they choose), and a story about why this dish is important to them during the holidays. Since this gathering is intended to replace The Smorgasbord, wassail will also be served.
12. The final Movie Night of the season was a huge success. We had 9 people gather to watch the 2002 movie "Luther." David and Marsha Jensen have done a thorough cleaning and restoration of the popcorn popper – it looks brand new! Many thanks to the Jensens for their hard work!
13. Gene Veburg and I went to Sam's on Nov 17 and purchased a 55" TV for the Sunday School room. Allen Bartling helped install the mounting fixture to the wall.
14. Thanksgiving Eve Worship will be Wednesday, Nov 22 at 7pm. A pie social will follow after in the Atrium. So far, 4 pies have been donated to the cause.

COUNCIL HIGHLIGHTS NOVEMBER 2023

1. David Jensen was present to offer the nominations for the 2023 Election Meeting. Council accepted the slate as presented.
2. Nominating Committee also made recommendations for committee reduction, beginning in 2025. Council tabled this discussion to discuss in further in December.
3. Thanksgiving Eve Offerings (undesignated) will be given to The Gathering Place.
4. Christmas Eve Offerings (undesignated) will also be given to The Gathering Place.
5. Council approved the 2024 Budget. Copies will be sent out to the congregation. Paper copies are available at The Connection Center and will also be available at the Congregational Meeting (Budget & Election) on December 3.
6. We had 1 Harvest Host Guest on October 30.

8. Beginning checkbook balance was 19,162.34. Ending balance was $13,663.04. Opening balance for savings was $44,160.65. End balance was $44,166.28.
