Dear Siblings in Christ,

As I write this to you, I am preparing to go bury my father. He fell in early November, fractured his back and a few ribs, and never recovered. The first funeral was in Winchester, Virginia (where he lived with my brother and sister-in-law); the second December 20 in McMinnville, Oregon (where he lived with my mother for 30 years before she died in July 2020).

Christmas will look a little different for me this year. I haven't lived near my biological family for nearly 30 years; life in the church will do that to a person. But somehow knowing that I can no longer visit my parents (when I would be able to) is a little bit different. There is a painful finality to that knowledge that was a bit unexpected for me.

We heard Isaiah remind us on December 10 how God longs to "comfort, o comfort my people" (Isaiah 40:1), and I'm sure many of us need to hear those words right now. All of us are missing loved ones this holiday season; some are recently deceased, and some may have been gone for a long time. Even so, we might look at the chair they used to occupy at our holiday tables and we miss them.

But even as we miss our loved ones who have gone on before us to The Church Triumphant, we do not live as people who have no hope. Paul reminds us in 1 Thessalonians 4:14 "For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have died." Christmas really brings this promise home, for it is at this time we celebrate the event that started it all – the birth of Christ. There is a lot of promise wrapped up in those swaddling clothes and laying in a manger. That child brings hope, peace, and comfort into the world in a way no one had ever seen before. That child grew into a man who lived, loved, and taught us what God was really like. And then he died at the hands of the State because the people in power did not like what he had to say. But that was not the end of the story; it was only the beginning! Jesus rose from the grave on the 3rd Day and made it possible for all who believe in him to have eternal life in his name! At a time of year when many of us are missing loved ones, this is a powerful promise, and one that brings great comfort.

As you gather around your Christmas tables this year (and you probably already have, by the time you read this), I trust you will remember those who are no longer there with you. I also trust that you will find hope, comfort, peace, and maybe even a little joy in knowing that even as we feast, our beloved ones are also dining at The Great Feast of Christ that knows no end.

Merry Christmas! Happy New Year!

Pastor Kim

From Bishop Scott Johnson

“The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us.”

(John 1.14 – NRSV Updated Edition)

“The Word became flesh and blood, and moved into the neighborhood.”

(John 1.14 – The Message)

“God was not too pure to enter the world.”

Dietrich Bonhoeffer

Beloved in Christ,

The season of Advent is here, and with it comes a question that has always fascinated me: what does it mean for God to become incarnate? Why would God want to bother with being born? Swaddling clothes? Diaper rash? Puberty? There are so many things about our bodies and our lives embodied in them that seem so incredibly embarrassing and unseemly; are we meant to believe that Jesus knew – and perhaps wanted to know – what it’s like to have body odor?

We believe and confess that God did, in fact, enter this existence as a person in Jesus of Nazareth, taking on our human form and becoming present in flesh and blood, just like all the rest of us ever have been and ever will be. How it worked remains a mystery we will only receive by faith. What it means is a question we have been answering for thousands of years, and will continue to do so for however many years remain until Jesus returns.

One of the things I believe about God’s presence in Jesus is this: God means for us to see this world as a realm worthy of God’s presence. This is an idea with which we have struggled, particularly those philosophical strains within human thought that have mistrusted bodies and preferred to believe that there is a way to escape or separate our minds and our souls from this inferior flesh in which we are somehow held captive. The incarnate Jesus stands against this idea, and also against the idea that this earth in which we live and from which we are made is somehow lesser, a realm to be escaped rather than enjoyed.

Perhaps one of the reasons Jesus was born in a stable rather than a palace was to hallow the very earthiest of circumstances with his presence. When I was a farm kid whose chores included mucking out hog houses and feeding cattle, it never once occurred to me that the odors that came with that sort of work would have been present, perhaps strongly so, on that holy night so long ago in Bethlehem. God entered this messy, dirty, smelly, imperfect world and blessed it by being fully present here: we should do the same wherever we go in this messy, dirty, smelly, imperfect world.

O come, O Child of Mary, come, who once was pleased to make this world your home.

In flesh and blood you lived to bless, embodied lovingkindness.

Rejoice! Rejoice!

Immanuel shall come to you, O Israel.

If the Word believed that taking on flesh and blood and moving into the neighborhood was good, then so should we believe that being fully present in our own lives is good. Go and be present, dear church. A blessed Advent and Christmas to you all.

GO AND...

BE PRESENT

As we await and celebrate Christ's birth, we remember that God is present and shows up. The babe in the manger, God Incarnate, is God's gift of deep love for us. We are invited to pause, be still, and be fully present in this holy season. Society calls us to a different place where busyness, spending, and rushing about are marks of success. God, in Christ, offers another way: Emmanuel – God with us.

Questions to Consider:

- What can I add to this season that would truly allow me to pause?
- What tradition do you have that nurtures being present at this time of year?
- As you are on the GO, how are you going to practice being present?

Prayer: Emmanuel, you are present with us. Help us be present with each other. Amen.

Suggested Song: O Come, O Come Emmanuel (ELW 257)

Pastor Kim is on vacation and will return to the office on January 4. If there is an emergency and you desire pastoral care while she is away, please contact Council President Charlotte Burke at (402) 770-7018 to be connected to the pastor on call.

ACTIVITIES AND MEMBER NEWS AT ST. ANDREW'S

MINISTRY OF THE MONTH FOR JANUARY, 2024:

The Ministry of the Month for January is "BraveBe Child Advocacy Center"—a non-profit organization providing a safe, child-friendly location for conducting forensic interviews and medical evaluations for abused children in southeast Nebraska. To help with their mission we are asking members of St. Andrew's to provide some of the following items: packaged snacks (no peanuts), juice boxes, NEW fuzzy blankets (no smaller than afghan size), NEW stuffed animals, gift cards to fast food restaurants, gas cards or bus passes for families who need help getting to and from their appointments, gift cards to family-friendly experiences such as the Children's Zoo, Children's Museum, Prehistoric Putt, Urban Air, etc. Thank you for supporting this very needed service to help abused children and their families in our community.

Thank you to everyone who supported our December M.O.M. Giving Tree. 64 gifts were donated for the clients of Region 5.

The support of our Ministries of the Month by the members of St. Andrew's is extraordinary. May we continue Reaching Out-Sharing Grace in the future.

WOMEN OF THE ELCA

WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY GROUPS: Ruth Circle will meet January 8 at 7pm in the Lounge. Rebecca Circle will meet on January 11 at 9:30am in the Lounge. The material is based on "Teachers of Faith".

The Winter Retreat will be held 9:30am-3:00pm on January 13, 2024 in Grand Island at St. Paul's Lutheran Church. The theme is centered on Psalms 40:8.

Quilters meet every Tuesday from about 9am to 12 noon. Do join the quilters on Tuesday mornings to put quilts together. No sewing ability is required.

Dominoes anyone? Come to church on November 20 at 1:00 p.m. for fun and fellowship! The ability to match numbered tiles is helpful. You don't need to bring dominoes as other members share theirs.

THANK YOU to everyone for the cards, prayers, and expressions of sympathy you have shown to me and Ken since my father passed away. Families can be complicated and mine is no exception to that; it has been very comforting to have you all surrounding us in this difficult time. Thank you for your kind support.

-Pastor Kim and Ken

THANK YOU for the gifts, cards, and well-wishes for Christmas. I love being your pastor and appreciate your expressions of love for me and Ken. Thank you for thinking of us during the Christmas season.

- Pastor Kim

TO THE CONGREGATION OF ST. ANDREWS:

The following proposed amendment to the constitution is created at the request of the Nominating Committee to revise the terms of elected Council members to 2 year terms with the potential to serve for three sequential 2-year terms, a possible six years on the Council. Currently, elected Council members serve a three year term and can be re-elected for an additional three year term for a possible six years on the Council.

The Council approved the proposed amendment at its December 12, 2023 meeting. The amendment shall be voted upon at the January 28, 2024 Congregational meeting. A simple majority at that meeting will pass the amendment. If passed, the amendment will be subject to ratification at a special meeting in December 2024 prior to the Budget and Election meeting. The ratification vote requires a 2/3 majority at that meeting.

The text for the proposed Constitutional Amendment is as follows:

An amendment to the Congregational Constitution Section C13.02.

This amendment provides for a change in the term and number of consecutive terms for Congregational Council members.

The amendment shall state that elected Council members shall serve a term of two (2) years and may be re-elected for three (3) sequential terms. This amendment shall take effect for the 2025 fiscal year.

Thank you for your consideration of this amendment.

Charlotte Burke
Council President

The Annual Meeting (Reports) will be Sunday, January 28, at 10:15am. Please join us for this important meeting.

The Golden Ladle

SOUP'S ON! And so is the competition! Please join in our soup cook-off! We will enjoy some soup and fellowship following the Annual Meeting (Reports) on Sunday, January 28. The Winner will have their name engraved on the plaque in the Narthex...and of course "bragging rights" for 2023! Don't miss out on the fun! There will be a sign-up sheet at the Connection Center.

COUNCIL HIGHLIGHTS, DECEMBER 2023

1. Ryan Bates has volunteered to serve as our Social Media intern. He will start after the first of the year.
2. Ashely Lowe (Home School Group) will be expanding her use of the building. She would like to be here on Thursdays, 9am-4pm. Charlotte Burke will follow up with her and ask for a donation for using the building to help offset cleaning costs and utilities.
3. The 2023 Nominating Committee has made recommendations for reducing the term of Council from a 3-year term to a 2-year term. All amendments to the Constitution must come before the Congregation, which will happen first at the Annual Meeting (Reports) on January 28, 2024.
4. The flat roof in the Narthex is being repaired.
5. Pastor will be out of town next week (Dec 19-21) to attend the funeral and burial of her father in Portland, Oregon.
6. Regular giving in November was $7,158.92 less than the budget estimate. Year to date regular giving is less than the budget estimate by $45,198.7. Special giving for November was $1427.88
7. Beginning checkbook balance for November was $13,663.04. Ending was $10,020.45. Beginning balance for savings was $44,166.28. Ending was $44,171.72.
8. Curt anticipates having to move some money out of savings to cover expenses in December.
9. Curt is working on designating funds in the savings account so we know how much money is unencumbered.

PASTOR'S COUNCIL REPORT, DECEMBER 2023

1. The Thanksgiving Eve Worship was well-attended, although numbers were down a little bit this year. (We usually see 50+ on this evening; this year we had 38 and 6 online). All the pies for the social this year were donated – thank you to everyone who shared a pie!
2. My father passed away on November 27. One funeral will be on December 11 in Virginia; I was planning to attend but our flight was canceled due to inclement weather. The second funeral will be on December 20 in McMinnville, OR, with burial to take place on December 21 in Portland, OR. Because of the way these services have been scheduled, I do not anticipate having to miss any Sundays.
3. The Book Study Wisdom's Daughters wrapped things up on November 30. We agreed to take a break now until April to wait for Season 4 of "The Chosen" to come out.
4. Because of my father's death, I have not been able to complete my usual home visits before Christmas. Everyone will be notified and I will catch up with these visitations in January.
5. I will be on vacation and out of the office December 26-January 3, returning to the office on January 4, 2024. We will have a Hymn Sing (no communion) on December 31. I am still looking for an on-call pastor to cover emergencies.
6. A Vitality Cohort Reunion has been scheduled for Sunday, January 7 at 1pm on Zoom.
