NOVEMBER

The StAND 2023

St. Andrew's Lutheran Church

Dear Siblings in Christ:

[Jesus said:] Ask, and it will be given to you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you. ⁸For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. –Matthew 7:7-8

Go and...ask. Jesus invites us to ask of him whatever we want. But we must be careful because this does not mean that God is "Santa Claus" or some sort of cosmic vending machine, as in if we "put in" the right prayers or are very good, God will do whatever we want. Jesus instead invites us to cast our cares and concerns upon him (1 Peter 5:7) and let him take care of it. This is not always easy to do.

In his book Just Like Jesus, Max Lucado writes about comparing our worries to garbage. When we haul our household garbage to the curb, we leave it there and don't look back. We might even call the garbage company and complain if the trash is not picked up the next day. And yet when it comes to our troubles, which we are supposed to haul to the Lord and leave at his feet, we sometimes have a hard time leaving those behind and walking away. At least I do. I'll pray about this or that and think I am leaving those things (or persons) at the feet of Jesus. But before I know it, I have picked them right back up again and am fussing about what I am going to do about whatever it is.

There are two mistakes here: one is thinking I can somehow handle things better than the Lord can and two, that I did not let it go in the first place. I wouldn't go out and pull the trash back in, thinking that I need to keep it, "just in case." So, Lucado asks, why do we do that with our cares and concerns?

The focus of Nebraska Synod this month is to "Go and...ask." Ask questions. Ask for what we need. Ask the Lord for help to forgive, to provide, to whatever. The Lord will hear us, answer us, and give us all that we need.

Walking with you along The Way,
Pastor Kim

ALL SAINT'S DAY REMEMBRANCE

We will remember these beloved Saints of God on Sunday, November 5:

Ron Burke

Patricia Kent

Larry Emmons

From Bishop Scott Johnson

For the Lord gives wisdom; from God's mouth come knowledge and understanding... Then you will understand righteousness and justice and equity, every good path; for wisdom will come into your heart, and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul; prudence will watch over you; and understanding will guard you.

—Proverbs 2:6, 9-11

Beloved in Christ,

During the Fall Conference of Bishops in Chicago [in September], I spent some time inviting my colleagues to lift up the questions they'd like to ask of you. So here are some questions you could spend some time pondering this month, from myself and from bishops around the ELCA:

1. How would you live differently if you didn't know Jesus?
2. What about your congregation is compelling enough that someone would want to be a part of it?
3. What would your community miss if your congregation was no longer there?
4. What is God up to in your context? Where have you seen God working in your congregation/ministry/life in the past month?
5. How did you come to be part of the Lutheran movement within the church?
6. What's your favorite hymn or worship song, and why?
7. Is there one passage of scripture that has a particularly strong meaning for you? If so, what is it, and how has it impacted your life?
8. How's your prayer/devotional/spiritual life? When it's good, what makes it so? When you're struggling, how do you struggle?
9. How are you praying for your pastor, deacon, bishop, and other church leaders?
10. What's your hope for the future of the ELCA, and where is the Holy Spirit calling you to go as a part of that future?
11. Who are the mentors and partners that have made a difference in your faith? Have you shared your thanks with them lately?
12. What does your family do to build up faith together? What at-home or family practices have been meaningful to you?

13. Have you invited anyone to consider if God is calling them into leadership in the church recently?
14. What books have made you think about faith or God recently? Were they religious in nature? Fiction? Non-fiction?
15. Who are some of your most beloved figures in the Bible? What about their story makes an impact on your own?
16. What was your Confirmation verse? Does it mean the same to you today as it did on the day you were confirmed?
17. If you could be part of one story in the Bible, or in the history of the church, what would it be?
18. What would you most like to ask God, if given the chance?
19. What do you love most about the Nebraska Synod?
20. Why does Jesus matter in your life?

Ponder away, friends – it's a great month for asking these and other good questions as disciples of Jesus together in this church.

Blessings,
Bishop Scott Alan Johnson

P.S. I'd still like the chance to answer any questions you might have about life in the Nebraska Synod in October 2023, so please do send those questions to office@nebraskasynod.org.

RESOURCES

In a world that is shifting and changing, we have come to recognize the importance of asking good questions. Good questions come from intentional listening and a willingness to engage with the unknown. God, Jesus, prophets, disciples, crowds, and Martin Luther all asked questions. As followers of Jesus, we are called to wrestle with questions, which do not always result in clear answers.

Questions to Consider:

- What big questions are on your heart and mind?
- What is a question you are afraid to ask?
- What would you add to Martin Luther's 95 Theses?
- What is a 'GO to' question as you engage in conversation?

Prayer: Knowing God, what are you asking of me? Amen.

Suggested Song: Ask the Complicated Questions (ACS 1005)

Ask: Resources

Prison Ministries in the Nebraska Synod continue to be a vital and important ministry for those who are currently incarcerated and those who are transitioning out of incarceration. Our Followers of Christ Prison Ministry and the FEAST Program at Our Saviour's Lutheran Church provide crucial support and education. These ministries are solely funded by donations that come from individuals and congregations within our Synod.

The information below explains this year's fundraising and educational event. Staff at Prison Ministries hope you can attend this event on November 5, 3-5pm, at Sheridan Lutheran Church.

ACTIVITIES AND MEMBER NEWS AT ST. ANDREW'S

MINISTRY OF THE MONTH FOR NOVEMBER:

CHALLENGE TO THE LUTHERAN FOOD PANTRY

For the month of November, our M.O.M. is supporting the "Thrivent 500 Can Challenge". Thrivent has challenged St. Andrew's to make a difference by collecting 500 individual containers of non-perishable food by November 30 for the Lutheran Food Pantry. During this time of increasing food costs it is difficult for many to afford enough food for their family. Any non-perishable foods will be gladly accepted.

Please place your donated items on the M.O.M. table by the office or on the table in the Narthex.

If the 500 can challenge is met, the Lutheran Food Pantry will receive a check for $500 from the Thrivent Member Network-Nebraska Region.

Thank you for helping the Lutheran Food Pantry reach their goal!

WOMEN OF THE ELCA

WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY GROUPS: Rebecca Circle will meet on Thursday, November 9, at 9:30am in the Lounge. Ruth Circle will meet on Monday, November 13, at 7:00pm in the Lounge and will use the Beth Moore bible study.

Quilters meet every Tuesday from about 9am to 12 noon. Do join the quilters on Tuesday mornings to put quilts together. No sewing ability is required.

Dominoes anyone? Come to church on November 20 at 1:00 p.m. for fun and fellowship! The ability to match numbered tiles is helpful. You don't need to bring dominoes as other members share theirs.

OUR CHRISTIAN SYMPATHY SURROUNDS:

— Gene and Charlotte Veburg on the death of Gene's brother, David, on October 23. Services were held at First "English" Lutheran Church in Rising City, NE.

May God enfold this family with love and light, and give them hope and comfort through the promise of eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

REFORMATION ROAST/BBQ COOK-OFF

Congratulations to Jeff Harris for his delicious Poor Man's Burnt Ends BBQ. Jeff is the winner of the 2023 Golden Spatula Award. The judges had a difficult decision choosing which of the meat entries should win—all were delicious! Thank you to all who contributed to such a great evening of food and fellowship.

Daylight Savings Time ends at 2:00am on Sunday, November 5. Don't forget to set your clocks back 1 hour!

THANK YOU to everyone for their contributions to the October M.O.M. "Harvest of Books". We collected 47 new books and $75 for the purchase of additional books to be distributed to 1st graders in Lincoln.

HANNAH BATES, BEVERLY SCOTT, AND CHAD SCOTT were welcomed into the community of St. Andrew's during worship on October 1.

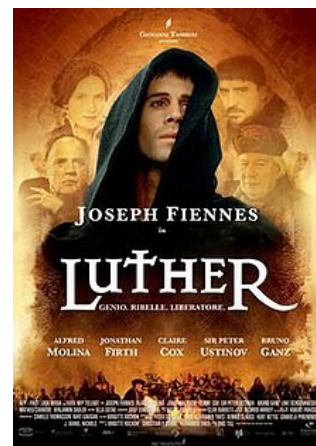

CHURCH NIGHT: On November 8 from 5-7pm we will be hosting our year-end "Faith, Family, and Food Trucks" event, an evening of food and fellowship. THE KOUZINA (PARTHENON) FOOD TRUCK will be in our south parking lot providing an opportunity to purchase some delicious food. Please ask your friends and neighbors to join us!

A presentation "Grieving Through the Holidays" will be given on November 12, 4pm, at Our Saviour's Lutheran Church. The presenter will be Jason Padilla, Tabitha's Bereavement Coordinator.

MOVIE NIGHT!

On Sunday, November 12, at 6:30pm, we invite you to watch "Luther", a historical film dramatizing the life of Protestant Christian reformer Martin Luther. The film covers Luther's life from his becoming a friar in 1505, to his trial before the Diet of Augsburg in 1530.

Bring a lawn chair and a beverage if you wish; popcorn will be provided.

THANKSGIVING EVE WORSHIP & PIE SOCIAL

Please join us for this special time of worship on Wednesday, November 22, at 7pm, as we give thanks to God for our many blessings.

Following worship, come enjoy pie and fellowship in the Atrium. St. Andrew's will provide the pies.

2. I took 4 vacation days (October 2-5) to rest and to celebrate my birthday.
3. The Revelation Bible Study is going well. The group asks challenging questions and I find myself learning a lot.
4. I really like the new confirmation curriculum, "A Toolbox for Faith.". It is challenging having only 1 student.
5. I met with Joel Stoltenow from Lutheran Family Services to hear more about the new post-COVID vision from LFS. The M.O.M. for February 2024 will support one of their new endeavors entitled "Well-Being Box," which is full of cleaning supplies and basic household necessities and will be given to refugee families as they settle in Lincoln. For more information, go to https://www.onelfs.org/wp-content/uploads/2023/08/Items_Needed-Well-being_Box.pdf

7. In October (as of this writing), we have had 6 Harvest Host Guests so far (and 5 in one week!). We had 3 guests in September, 2 of whom joined us for worship on Sunday.
8. The Skymart Food Truck was well attended on October 11. Our next (and final) Food Truck will be The Parthenon on November 8. The December 13 food gathering will be a multicultural potluck (to expand on our previous tradition of The Smorgasbord). Everyone is encouraged to bring a dish from their ethnic background.

1. The first meeting of the Tri-Church Youth Group was held on Sept 24 with 9 youth in attendance. The next meeting will be on Nov 5 at Wyuka Cemetery for All Saints' Day.
2. Fundraising for the Youth Gathering in New Orleans is going well. The girls have raised nearly $3000 since January. I updated the thermometer in the Narthex to reflect this. Our goal is to raise about $9000 total.
3. After some research into travel options, the girls have decided they want to fly to New Orleans for The Gathering. Surprisingly, flying seems to be the most economical way for us to get there (without having to rent or borrow a van for 6 people).
